

GLOBAL GREEN USA PRIVACY POLICY

Global Green USA (GGUSA) respects your right to privacy and is committed to maintaining your confidence and trust. We do not sell or rent any information you provide us through our website. We have created the following privacy policy to inform you about the ways in which we collect and use this information.

GGUSA does not collect any information from you without your knowledge and permission, and we do not ask that you enter any personal information to access or use most areas of the GGUSA website. In order to use some of the tools and functions, however, you must enter some identifying information. GGUSA does not disclose this information to anyone except 1) to identify you, as described in the following five paragraphs, to those you contact through our website and 2) to manage our website and database with the help of service providers, who are subject to a non-disclosure agreement. Information you provide GGUSA is stored in a secure location and is accessible only by designated staff.

Online E-Activism

To send a message from our online action center to government officials and other decision-makers you must identify yourself by name, address and email address. GGUSA includes this information when we send your message. This is necessary for your message to be effective, and in the case of many government officials it is required.

Postcards and "Tell Your Friends" Pages

To forward an article, postcard or E-activist alert you must enter your name, your email address and the email address(es) of anyone you are sending it to. GGUSA includes your name and email address when we send your message.

Other Places Information May Be Requested

In addition to information you enter when sending messages to friends and decision-makers from GGUSA's website, you may submit information directly to GGUSA for purposes including donating, subscribing to an email bulletin or entering a contest. GGUSA will not disclose this information to anyone except in accordance with any rules you agree to as a contestant and, as described above, to manage our website and database with the help of service providers, who are subject to a non-disclosure agreement.

Secure Transactions

When you donate to GGUSA via our website your donation information is encrypted and transmitted via a secure connection. GGUSA uses your credit card information only for the purpose of processing your donation. We will not disclose this information except as necessary to process your donation and we do not store it once your donation has been processed.
